Mr. Bohlman a few days ago exhibited the mammoth egg at the store of John McNichols, here, and many persons who saw it said they had never seen one of its size.

Newspaperman, desirous of knowing how the weight of the egg compared with the weight of other eggs, contacted County Agent William F. Greenawalt, who said the average large variety weighs from 2 to 2 1/2 ounces. The County Agent expressed the opinion that the egg produced by Mr. Bohlman's hen has

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

House Republican leaders yesterday consigned to the indefinite future action on universal military training, but agreed to speed passage of a bill to increase veterans' benefits by $350,000,000 a year. They also cleared the way for the Knutson income tax reduction bill slated for passage on Monday. Debate, which is expected to be on strict party lines, opens today.

Secretary Marshall gave up his demand for State Department control over administration of the European Recovery Program and said that he would accept the independent agency plan favored by Senator Vandenberg. He held out, however, for the full $6,800,000,000 fund despite clear indications that it would be cut $1,000,000,000.

Faced with a revolt in the Socialist party over the French Government's new monetary program, Premier Schuman will ask his Cabinet to decide whether a vote of confidence should be demanded. There was some hope that a compromise might be reached.

Agreement by the United States and Britain to give France full control over Saar coal, it was learned, was granted in full expectancy that the French would soon open talks to join their zone of Germany with "Rizonia."

The plan of Bulgaria's Communist Premier Dimitrov for a Balkan federation was disapproved by Pravda, organ of the Soviet Communist party. The paper ridiculed "a problematical and artificial federation or customs union" and called for unity on the basis of the Cominform declaration.

Poland, to build up her reserve of bank credits, will make savings compulsory on all earnings more than $500 a year.

No move to relax this country's embargo on arms or ammunition shipments to Palestine is under consideration, Secretary Marshall said. House investigators seemed satisfied that no illegal step had been taken in merely buying ammunition here for the account of the Jewish agency. In Palestine the British tightened border controls to halt Arab infiltration.

Lebanon proposed that the United Nations create a permanent conciliation committee responsible to the Assembly to settle disputes in a non-political atmosphere.

Former Premier Jabr of Iraq, who resigned because of protests over a new British treaty, fled to Trans-Jordan for safety.

General Motors Corporation was charged in a complaint by General Counsel Denham of the NLRB with refusing to bargain with the auto workers' union on a pension plan. Leaders of the CIO steel workers will meet to frame wage demands on February 16th.

$1800 IS PLEDGED OR PAID TOWARD PARK

Penndel War Memorial Recreation Center Committee Has A Meeting

GAUGE SHOWS GOAL

PENNDEL, Jan. 29 — That $1800 has been pledged or paid to date was information given by the treasurer, Alexander Knox, to Penndel War Memorial Recreation Center Committee, last evening. A group of 10 committeemen met at a local business house, with Russell W. Brown and Charles F. O'Brien, co-chairman of the drive, presiding.

Form letters are being sent to residents and business houses in the borough, advising them the drive is now beginning.

A large thermometer has been erected at the intersection of Bellevue avenue and Lincoln highway, showing the goal of $8500.

Plans for the recreation center have been drawn up by a local architect and engineer. These plans call for baseball and soft-ball diamonds; football field, basketball and tennis courts; also picnic grounds. The plot, located at the southern end of this borough, near the Middletown township and Hulmeville borough lines, consists of over five acres.

The $8500 now sought will cover the purchase price and also part of the necessary improvements. It is stated.

Borough council has gone on record endorsing the plan for the project. It is announced. When funds are secured and plot purchased, it will be formally presented and dedicated to the borough, council then taking full charge of the project.

THE HOOVER REPORT

Ex-President Hoover's report on the Marshall Plan for aid to Europe is a document of tremendous importance.

He has concentrated in a single survey all the valid objections to the present Marshall Plan—and shown why these objections are valid.

Moreover, he has gone much farther, and in each case shown how the objective could be reached more efficiently without the risks involved in the Marshall-Truman approach.

Hoover speaks with great authority. In fact, he knows far more about world conditions in general, and the European problem in particular, than either President Truman or Secretary Marshall does. He is an engineer of long experience in exactly such matters. He handled American relief after World War One.

Moreover, he made a specific report on Europe's needs which was the basis (although credit was not given him) for virtually all the present Marshall Plan. He now comes forward to show why the Marshall proposals will not serve the needs he pointed out in his earlier report, and how the program can be changed to meet those needs without undermining our own American economy.

As a political proposition, the Hoover Report landed in Congress at the psychological moment. A host of objections had been aired against the Marshall Plan, most of them detached and few accompanied by suitable remedies. Senator Vandenberg has been trying to get the Marshall Plan accepted, with minor modifications, as "bipartisan." Senator Taft has been picking the plan methodically to pieces.

Mr. Hoover, in discussing the effect of the present Marshall Plan upon our domestic economy, pointed out that this is only one of several simultaneous forms for foreign aid, with a proposed total of $9,000,000,000 in the coming fifteen months. This he concludes (both because of the amount, and because so much of it is in commodities already scarce) is far more than we can afford without greatly increasing inflation and undermining our future ability to help—or, for that matter, if war is coming, to defend ourselves.

He would scale the cost down to $4,000,000,000. Three billions would be wiped out by the simple process of turning the steel mills of Japan and Germany back into production, instead of holding them in idleness at a cost to the American taxpayers of $1,500,000,000 a year for each of these occupied countries.

GRASSES, GRAINS ARE BENEFITING BY SNOW

In Spite of Fact Farmers Have Been Inconvenienced by Elements

PREVENTS HEAVING

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 29 — The grasses and winter grains have been receiving the benefit of the snow and cold weather, in spite of the fact that many people, farmers in particular, have been inconvenienced by the elements, states County Agent William F. Greenawalt.

The snow, which has been on the ground since Christmas, has been serving as a protection for grains and grasses, and the continued cold weather has been preventing the grasses from heaving.

According to Mr. Greenawalt, this winter to date has been one of the most beneficial for farmers for a number of years. A continued alteration of thawing and freezing, he said, will have a tendency to cause the grasses to heave with the result that the root system is damaged.

However, the danger of heaving remains because this may take place as late in the season as March as the weather becomes more mild.

On the other hand, said Mr. Greenawalt, there is a danger of some of the grain and grasses smothering, especially in the low places where there may be a coating of ice. The winter grains got off to a rather poor start because of the lack of rain and poor germination at seeding time. Mr. Greenawalt said the grains before the snow did not have a good appearance. Alfalfa, which was seeded earlier in the season, is in better condition because at planting time there was more moisture.

The water supply in all parts of

DEEM IT WISE TO BUILD ANNEX AT CORNWELLS BLDG.

To Cope With Swelling Enrollment in Bensalem Twp. Schools

A SPECIAL MEETING

4 Rooms Considered By Board; To Go Over The Details with Architect

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Jan. 29 — From the facts presented at a special meeting of Bensalem township school board last evening, directors arrived at a conclusion the best manner in which to cope with swelling enrollment is to build a four-room annex at the north wing of Bensalem township high school building, here.

No definite decision was reached on this matter, however, depending upon consultation with the board's architect.

The directors, at their last regular meeting, made a study of the present enrollment by grades. Figures show 1335 pupils listed in the township schools, an increase of 115 over December of 1946.

At the meeting in the high school building, last evening, with Robert Vanzant presiding, directors went into the problem thoroughly, in order that matters may be well in hand for next fall.

Several alternatives were considered—half-day sessions; renting of space; securing of temporary buildings, possibly from the War Assets Administration; or erection of an annex at either Andalusia or Cornwells Heights buildings.

From the facts at hand and the architect's advice, the erection of a four-room annex here was deemed most advisable. Further details are to be secured from the architect before definite decision to proceed with this plan.

Authorization was given to advertise for a janitor for the high school building, hours three to 11 p. m., Monday through Friday, at the high school building.

Crede of People of U. S. Considered Before Rotary

ANDALUSIA, Jan. 29 — Marking the seventh anniversary of the charter presentation, Bensalem Rotary Club held a dinner meeting in King Hall on Tuesday evening. The charter was presented on January 25th, 1941. Edgar Bekeas was the presiding officer at this week's meeting.

The guest speaker, Jacob Crouse, a member of the Northeast Chamber of Commerce, Philadelphia, was introduced by Phillip Mack, program chairman. Mr. Crouse's subject was "The Definite Values Service Clubs Render in their Respective Communities." Services listed included fellowship and making a community a better place in which to live through progressiveness.

With keen insight, Mr. Crouse spoke of certain perplexities and problems in the world today, such as the Marshall Plan, inflation, etc. He informed that the United States has 7% of the world's population, 6% of the world's land area, 89% of the world's automobiles; 32% of the world's roads; and 60% of the world's life insurance policies.

He spoke strongly about the system of government here and the credo of the people of this country—such as freedom of trade, specialized production, individual initiative, thrift, better equipment, efficient management. "When you wrap these all in one package they make our way of life."

Oscar Schaeffer, manager of Phila. Gas Works, and an affiliate of that firm for 50 years, also vice-president of Northeast Chamber of Commerce, Philadelphia, was a guest. Another guest, Richard W. Fechtburg, a member of Bristol Rotary Club and one of the founders of Bensalem Club, spoke of the proposed joint meeting of Bensalem and Morrisville clubs, with Bristol club serving as host. ## A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

House Republican leaders yesterday consigned to the indefinite future action on universal military training, but agreed to speed passage of a bill to increase veterans'
benefits by $350,000,000 a year.
They also cleared the way for the Knutson income tax reduction bill slated for passage on Monday. Debate, which is expected to be on strict party lines, opens today.

Secretary Marshall gave up his demand for State Department control over administration of the European Recovery Program and said
that he would accept the independent agency plan favored by Senator Vandenberg. He held out, however, for the full $6,800,000,000 fund despite clear indications that it would be cut $1,000,000,000.

Faced with a revolt in the Socialist party over the French Government's new monetary program,
Premier Schuman will ask his Cab-

fidence should be demanded. There was some hope that a compromise
might be reached.

Agreement by the United States
and Britain to give France full con-

was granted in full expectancy that the French would soon open talks to join their zone of Germany with

$1800 IS PLEDGED OR PAID TOWARD PARK

Pennel War Memorial Recre- ation Center Committee Has A Meeting

GAUGE SHOWS GOAL

PENNDL, Jan. 29 — That $1800
has been pledged or paid to date
was information given by the treasurer, Alexander Knox, to Pennel
War Memorial Recreation Center
Committee, last evening. A group of 10 committeemen met at a local business house, with Russell W.
Brown and Charles F. O'Brien, co-chairman of the drive, presiding.

Form letters are being sent to residents and business houses in the borough, advising them the drive
is now beginning.

A large thermometer has been erected at the intersection of Bel-
vue avenue and Lincoln highway,
showing the goal of $8500.

Plans for the recreation center
have been drawn up by a local architect and engineer. These plans
call for baseball and soft-ball diamonds; football field; basketball
and tennis courts; also picnic grounds. The plot, located at the southern end of this borough, near the Middletown township and Hulmeville borough lines, consists of over five acres.

The $8500 now sought will cover
the purchase price and also part of the necessary improvements. It is stated.

Borough council has gone on record endorsing the plan for the project. It is announced. When funds are secured and plot purchased, it will be formally presented and dedicated to the borough, council
then taking full charge of the project.

MRS. S. R. WILLIAMS

Death occurred at her Media
home for Mary Louise Williams (nee Patton), wife of Stuart R. Patton, who died rather suddenly of natural causes. Daughter of the late Price I. and Louise Doron Patton and granddaughter of the late William E. and Louise Doron, Bristol, the young woman is survived by her husband; a son, Richard T.
Burroughs, 3d, of Arlington, Va.;
and a brother, Edward W. Patton, Philadelphia. The deceased was a graduate of St. Mary's School, Burlington. Service will be at two p. m.
Saturday, at 1820 Chestnut street,
Philadelphia. Burial will be private.
Friends may call Friday from seven to nine o'clock.

On the other hand, said Mr.
Greenawalt, there is a danger of
something of the grain and grasses
smothering, especially in the low
places where there may be a coating of ice. The winter grains got off to a rather poor start because of the lack of rain and poor germination at seeding time. Mr.
Greenawalt said the grains before
the snow did not have a good appearance. Alfalfa, which was seed-

Three New Members Join Bristol Modelers' Club

The Bristol Modelers held a weekly meeting last night and had three new members present. This brings the club membership to 29
active model airplane builders.

There were three model planes
brought to the meeting, all gas models. Two were special designs for stunt flying and the other was a free flight "Powerhorse" designed by the nationally famous Dick Korda.

The free flight ship was built by Thomas Spitzo. Many of the club members are old timers in the model building field. C. Wells, the club president has 12 years behind him. Robert Winslow, vice president has 15 years to back him up.
H. Stephens, the secretary, has 11
years to vouch for him, and H.
Brown has eight years to back him
up.

This experience will be of value
to the newer members, they will have all the assistance that will be needed to get them started as model builders.

The club is beginning to gain a place in the community through the sponsorship of the Exchange Club.
The club is open to all those who would like to participate in the club's activities. By writing to P. O.

THE HOOVER REPORT

Ex-President Hoover's report on the Marshall Plan for aid
to Europe is a document of tremendous importance.

He has concentrated in a single survey all the valid objections to the present Marshall Plan—and shown why these objections are valid.

Moreover, he has gone much farther, and in each case shown how the objective could be reached more efficiently without the risks involved in the Marshall-Truman approach.

Hoover speaks with great authority. In fact, he knows far more about world conditions in general, and the European problem in particular, than either President Truman or Secretary Marshall does. He is an engineer of long experience in exactly such matters. He handled American relief after World War One.

Moreover, he made a specific report on Europe's needs which was the basis (although credit was not given him) for virtually all the present Marshall Plan. He now comes forward to show why the Marshall proposals will not serve the needs he pointed out in his earlier report, and how the program can be changed to meet those needs without undermining our own American economy.

As a political proposition, the Hoover Report landed in Congress at the psychological moment. A host of objections had been aired against the Marshall Plan, most of them detached and few accompanied by suitable remedies. Senator Vandenberg has been trying to get the Marshall Plan accepted, with minor modifications, as "bipartisan." Senator Taft has been picking the plan methodically to pieces.

Mr. Hoover, in discussing the effect of the present Marshall Plan upon our domestic economy, pointed out that this is only one of several simultaneous forms for foreign aid, with a proposed total of $9,000,000,000 in the coming fifteen months. This he concludes (both because of the amount, and because so much of it is in commodities already scarce) is far more than we can afford without greatly increasing inflation and undermining our future ability to help—or, for that matter, if war is coming, to defend ourselves.

He would scale the cost down to $4,000,000,000. Three billions would be wiped out by the simple process of turning the steel mills of Japan and Germany back into production, instead of holding them in idleness at a cost to the American taxpayers of $1,500,000,000 a year for each of these occupied countries.

GRASSES, GRAINS ARE BENEFITING BY SNOW

PREVENTS HEAVING

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 29 — The grasses and winter grains have been receiving the benefit of the snow
and cold weather, in spite of the fact that many people, farmers in particular, have been inconveni-
enced by the elements, states
County Agent William F. Green-awalt.

The snow, which has been on the ground since Christmas, has been serving as a protection for grains
and grasses, and the continued cold
weather has been preventing the grasses from heaving.

According to Mr. Greenawalt, this winter to date has been one of the most beneficial for farmers for a number of years. A continued alteration of thawing and freezing, he said, will have a tendency to cause
the grasses to heave with the result that the root system is damaged.

However, the danger of heaving
remains because this may take place as late in the season as March
as the weather becomes more mild.
On the other hand, said Mr.
Greenawalt, there is a danger of
something of the grain and grasses
smothering, especially in the low
places where there may be a coat-
ing of ice. The winter grains got

POLICE OFFICERS IN COUNTY FORM LODGE

Officers in Five Boroughs and Delaware River Bridge Group Are Members

OBJECTS ARE STATED

Police officers of Bristol, Newtown, Trumbauersville, Morrisville, Delaware River Bridge Police of Morrisville, and the police of Perkasie, have organized establishing a subordinate lodge of the "Fraternal Order of Police," called:
"Bucks County Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 53."

"The primary object is to improve relations between neighboring police departments in their service to their respective communities," says a spokesman.

"The Fraternal Order of Police is an organization for policemen,
managed by policemen, actively engaged in police work for a state,
county, city, town or municipality.
It is decidedly not and cannot affiliate with any labor organization,"
continues the statement.

In addition it is the aim of this
new lodge to support legislative affecting the establishment of pensions for all regularly employed police officers, and to help in the passage of new laws beneficial to all police officers.

"Our charter was granted Dec.
2nd, 1947, and our membership has increased rapidly. It is also our sincere wish that all qualified police officers will soon join our local lodge."

GERMANS ARE HUNGRY

Strikes in the British and American occupation zones in Germany have been causing temporary paralysis in city after city.
They have resulted in serious losses of needed production. They have provided an opportunity for Communists to incite some groups
to wave banners calling for "Liberty" or "Unity." They are not to be taken lightly.

Yet their significance should not be overemphasized, either.
General Clay, the American military commander in Germany,
probably has appraised them accurately. Now in Washington to answer Congressional questions,
he has said that while he does not
like the situation he is not worried about it. That is, he is confident the occupation powers will be able to handle it.

His attitude is founded on a number of factors bearing on this problem. For one thing, these strikes appear to be non-political.
And they are aimed principally at the German authorities rather than the military governments.

So it seems that if the German authorities improve their performance in collecting and distributing food produced in Germany, the trouble will begin to die down.

SUCH IS FAME

On a radio quiz program recently contestants were asked to name the Governor-General of Canada and, of course, nobody knew it. Those who worry their way onto quiz programs seem to be notoriously lacking in factual
knowledge.

But listening to this program
were many persons who knew instantly that the Governor-General
was a former British general, but his name simply would not leap from the tip of the tongue. When the announcer said it was Alexander, they felt silly.

Fame continues to be fleeting.
Men whose names seemed im-
printed in the public mind for centuries to come are all but forgotten now. A century from now probably not more than three or four generals who won fame in the recent conflict will be remembered.

Who were Peyton March, Al-
lenby, Tasker Bliss, Samsonoff, Ludendorff, A. P. Hill or the Twentieth Kansas? Few can answer.

March was chief of staff in World War I. Allenby captured Jerusalem and fought one of the many battles of Armageddon.
Bliss was one of the three top generals of the U. S. in World War I, along with March and Pershing and sat on the Inter-
Allied Military Council.

Samsonoff was a Russian commander in World War I, whose men perished by tens of thousands
when driven into swamps by Ludendorff and von Hindenburg.
A. P. Hill commanded a corps for
Gen. Robert E. Lee along with Longstreet and Jackson.

The Twentieth Kansas was probably the most famous regiment to fight the Philippine Insurrection.

The Hoover Report

In actual commodities, he would confine our aid to only such goods as are in surplus over our own domestic needs. He estimates that a total of these (including food, coal, fertilizers and cotton) amounting to $3,000,000,000, would be available in the next fifteen months. These he would simply give—he would wipe out all pretense that we are "loaning" money, for the very practical reason that there isn't a chance in the world
such loans would ever be repaid.

For the rest of the needs of Europe, he makes several suggestions. One is that we encourage Latin and South American countries to reopen credit with European countries. Another is that foreign nations whose citizens own large properties in the United States seize these properties as collateral for loans—a process which often has been used in the past. In this connection he points out dryly:

"If there is a protest that taking over these privately held resources is a hardship to the owners, it may be pointed out that the alternative is a far greater hardship
for the American taxpayer."

Another source of financing European relief which he suggests is through the Export-Import Bank.

In limiting the effect of the program on prices, scarcities and other phases of our home-front economy, Mr. Hoover makes this recommendation:

"The only safe way for us is not to over-export."

With this in mind, he would sharply reduce the proposed export of iron and steel under the Marshall Plan, and if necessary distribute the suggested rebuilding of certain European industrial plants and equipment over several years instead of the next fifteen months. He would enable Germany and Japan to make a great deal of this steel, instead of taking it out of our own supply, and would increase our coal exports to facilitate such an arrangement. On the other hand, he warns vigorously against the proposal to export many hundreds of millions of dollars worth of oil and gas, because these already are critically short here.

The broadest significance of the Hoover recommendations
is that they would separate the relief portions of the Marshall Plan from the purely political projects—and save the welfare part at the expense of the power politics. He demands a plan which would be as he says "far more business and economic than political."

In doing this, he would detach the whole Marshall Plan from the State Department, and put it in a bipartisan group of businessmen, to be selected "by prior consultation with the Congressional leaders."

Moreover, he would reject all temptation to make a "four-year plan" out of relief. As he points out, it is impossible to know what the food situation will be at home or abroad more than a few months ahead, and other conditions could change quickly.

Moreover, it is obvious that the ex-President believes we should, in the Washingtonian phrase, "avoid entangling alliances"—that is, that we should keep ourselves in such a position as to be able to withdraw from further participation in the plan
any moment it began working out in a way we disapproved.

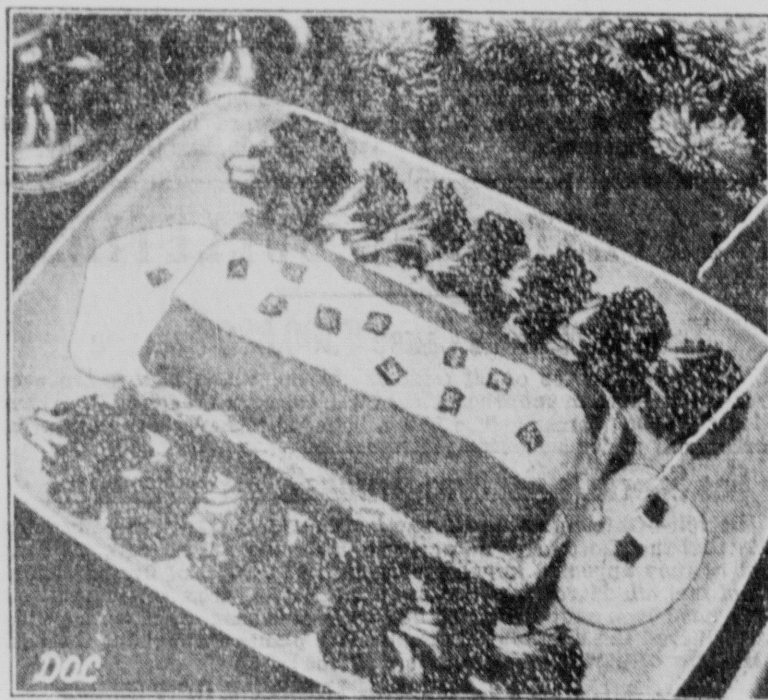

There was an almost amusing difference in the reception which the New Dealers gave the first Hoover report, calling for aid in Europe and specifically for the rebuilding of German industries to fill the "vacuum" their destruction caused on the continent, and the recent one poking holes in the Marshall Plan.

The first one was enthusiastically greeted by the White House and State Department as an authoritative statement of reasons
why they should go ahead and do, for humanitarian reasons,
what they appear privately to have decided they wanted to do for political reasons.

The second was greeted with the reverse of enthusiasm. The only tribute paid to it was the effort of the State Department to bury it under the release of the "secret" German war papers.
The White House gave it a quick brush-off, and the State Department offered merely to "study" it.

The reason is simple enough. The first Hoover report offered the patronage-minded boys in the Truman Administration a plan for the biggest boon-doggling WPA-type project in history, at a time when they needed something of the sort to help re-elect their "boss." The second one neatly revealed how little of the Marshall Plan is devoted to genuine relief, and how much of it to that political commodity known in the old days, the days of the "plum-tree," simply as "pork."

"Loaf" Your Way To Thrift With A Thrifty Cereal!

PROOF positive that a thrifty dish
need never be dull is pictured in this Ribbon Cereal Loaf, topped with a pink pimiento sauce! Lush
in looks, but little in cost, this is a loaf that will never leave your budget in the lurch.

Here's a delicious dish to show
how you can save with the help of the cereals:

Ribbon Cereal Loaf
3 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup granular
wheat cereal
8 ounces cottage
cheese (1 cup)
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 teaspoon grated
onion
*Pimiento Sauce
Bring water and salt to rapid boil, gradually stir in granular
wheat cereal and cook for 3 minutes
or until thick, stirring constantly.
Pour 1/2 the cooked cereal into a greased loaf pan 8x4 inches. Season cottage cheese with salt, pepper and

*Pimiento Sauce
2 tablespoons
butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup milk
1 7-ounce jar
pimientos

Melt butter and stir in flour, salt
and pepper; gradually add milk,
stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Put 1/2 the pimientos
through a coarse sieve; chop remaining pimientos; stir into white sauce; mix thoroughly. Serve hot over cereal loaf.

I, long for the good old picture

RHYMED DEFINITIONS

All "digests" boil articles to brief summaries;
Or you might say, they publish
just EPITOMES.

Here's one that is rare and somewhat curious:
BRUNMAGEM—cheap, flashy and unpopular.

was talking to a chance acquaintance in his hotel lobby. He said:
"In ancient Bagdad a weaver of rugs complained much of his employer, saying: 'I do all of the work and he gets most of the money. He is indeed a louse.'
And his employer said: 'I pay my worker well, yet he adds to my business headaches. He is a wretch.' Then came a wise magistrate who told these men, 'Thou art brothers with like hopes and purposes. Each needs the other.
Sit down and visit together, and
each will find that the other is a man of good intent. Then return to the making of rugs that you
both may profit.'"

It's the season for many school dances and indoor events. Most decorations are highly inflamma-
ble. Keep fire extinguishers
handy, and have exits plainly marked. Use every safety measure.

We suppose that the person who forgets some entries on the income tax blank could be said to have
"untold wealth."

Tobogganing is a world of fun!
Too bad that it also has its hazards. There should be proper supervision of every slide where young folks go sliding.

A magazine article, listing the various things which can be accomplished through sound waves,
mentions the fact that they will keep food from spoiling. And we had thought that the radio crooner
program seemed to have the reverse effect at breakfast time.

Musicians Who Served Half Century Resign

PERKASIE Jan. 29—After serving as chorister and organist, respectively, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W.
Baum have resigned their posts at Trinity Lutheran Church, here.

The resignations are effective
January 31.

Mr. Baum, Perkaskie publisher, the only chorister in the history of the congregation began his duties when
the church was organized in 1893.
In recent years his son, Willard Baum, has been serving as his assistant and Willard was named as his father's successor.

Mrs. Baum became the organist about 1895, and continued in that capacity for many years without an assistant. She has been assisted in recent years by Mrs. Alice Guick
and Franklin C. Koder. Mr. Koder
was named to succeed Mrs. Baum.

The Baums were not present at the meeting, tendering their resignations by letter. They are now in Florida.

The Rev. Norman Y. Ritter, pastor
and president of the church council, lauded the service of Mr. and Mrs. Baum and said a testimonial
will be held when the Baums return to Perkaskie.

The second was greeted with the reverse of enthusiasm. The only tribute paid to it was the effort of the State Department to bury it under the release of the "secret" German war papers. The White House gave it a quick brush-off, and the State Department offered merely to "study" it.

The reason is simple enough. The first Hoover report offered the patronage-minded boys in the Truman Administration a plan for the biggest boon-doggling WPA-type project in history, at a time when they needed something of the sort to help re-elect their "boss." The second one neatly revealed how little of the Marshall Plan is devoted to genuine relief, and how much of it is that political commodity known in the old days, the days of the "plum-tree," simply as "pork."

Musicians Who Served Half Century Resign

PERKASIE, Jan. 29—After serving as chorister and organist, respectively, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Baum have resigned their posts at Trinity Lutheran Church, here.

The resignations are effective January 31.

Mr. Baum, Perkaspie publisher, the only chorister in the history of the congregation, began his duties when the church was organized in 1893. In recent years his son, Willard Baum, has been serving as his assistant and Willard was named as his father's successor.

Mrs. Baum became the organist about 1895, and continued in that capacity for many years without an assistant. She has been assisted in recent years by Mrs. Alice Gulick and Franklin C. Koder. Mr. Koder was named to succeed Mrs. Baum.

The Baums were not present at the meeting, tendering their resignations by letter. They are now in Florida.

COUNTY HIGHWAYS ARE NOW CLEAR OF DRIFTS

200 Employees Manned 106 Snow Plows and Cinder Trucks After Storm

TASK A DIFFICULT ONE

Snow plows, cinder trucks totaling 106, and manned by 200 employees of the State Highway Department by Monday evening had all highways in Bucks County cleared of drifts. This is according to County Superintendent of Highways, James D. Worthington.

This was the second storm with which the employees had to contend this winter. The first was on the night of Christmas Day, when a larger amount of snow fell than during the last storm. The drifts, however, according to Mr. Worthington, were much deeper than during the first storm, when they blocked the highways from three to four feet. Drifts during the last storm were from six to eight feet in some places.

The employees during the more recent storms had to contend with near zero temperatures and extremely high winds, which were responsible for the deeper drifts. The snowfall during the last storm was considerably less than in the first.

One thing which facilitated the opening of the roads was the new snow fighter, a five-ton apparatus driven by 176 horsepower motor and which is equipped with a V-shaped scoop with a wing attached to the left side. This apparatus is used to remove the deeper drifts.

Almost immediately after the snow began to fall on Saturday, crews were dispatched to clear the roads and to apply cinders on steep grades and at curves. The 75 plows were operated by two men and three men were assigned to each cinder truck.

Among the roads most difficult to clear of snow were Swamp road from Furlong to Rushland, the road leading from Lahaska to Lumberville, Carversville road from Wismer to Aquetong, Ridge road from Pineville to Bowman's Hill and the road from Wrightstown to Washington Crossing.

According to Mr. Worthington, about 30 per cent of the secondary roads were open to one-way traffic by Monday, the employees widened them for two-way traffic. Cinder trucks continued to apply cinders where roads were coated with ice.

Mr. Worthington said that although the amount of snow during the last storm was much less than during the first one, almost as much work was required because the drifts were deeper.

Only 72 Children Had Correct Shoes

23 in the next three grades; and 69 in the high school.

Thirty-nine pupils had ringworm or other fungus growths. Three had club feet, and four were afflicted with infantile paralysis. A total of 319 children had ingrown toenails or improperly cut ones.

The oxfords were found to be the most popular type of shoe among the students with 270 children wearing them. Loafers were the second choice with 83 wearers; and saddle shoes, worn by 78 pupils, were third.

Wing tips, sandals, corrective shoes, sneakers, pumps, high lacing shoes, play shoes and combat boots were preferred in that order by the remainder of the student body.

Interesting statistics show that 242 children wore short shoes, eight wore long shoes; 205 had narrow shoes, 16 had wide shoes and seven wore arch supports. One pupil was afflicted with bursitis. It was found that nine children had a discrepancy in leg length.

Chicago Sun Quits As Separate Paper

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—The morning Chicago Sun and afternoon Chicago Times, owned by Marshall Field, announced today that they would merge into a 24-hour newspaper to be known as the Chicago Daily Sun and Times. The merger will be effective Monday.

Field purchased the Times, a tabloid, last summer. Last Oct. 1 he moved the Sun, a standard-sized paper, to the Times plant and changed it to a tabloid size paper. Their Sunday editions were combined last September.

The "round the clock" Sun and Times also will permit the more efficient use of production and distribution facilities necessary in a period of higher costs for newsprint, increasing wages and other economic pressures.

The announcement came on the sixty-sixth day of the strike of 1,500 printers, members of Local 16 of the Chicago Typographical Union, affiliate of the International Typographical Union, AFL, against the city's six daily newspapers. As a result of the walk-out, each of the six dailies adopted a time-consuming method of photoengraving type-written stories and advertisements, thus by-passing the composing rooms.

When this organization was first started, there were registered 43 troops, and now there are approximately 57, consisting of over 1000 Girl Scouts in Bucks County.

The Brownies, intermediates and seniors of various troops throughout the county have put on 15 radio programs. The girls have done this solely for the enjoyment they have each received.

16 POINTS IN 3RD SESSION SCORED BY 5TH WARD

Sixteen points in the third session enabled the Fifth Ward Sporting Club to take undisputed possession of second place in the Bristol Basketball League last night as the Warders topped the Croydon Vets, 42-34, on the Maple Beach clubhouse court.

The Vets played good ball throughout the entire contest with the exception of the third quarter when their defense throttled and Fifth Ward jumped into a 15-point lead.

Croydon came back strong in the last period and registered 13 points while holding Fifth Ward to 8.

Joe Piebani led the Fifth Ward team to its seven circuit triumph by slitting the cords for 8 twin-counters and a foul with "Vince" DiTanna getting six field goals. The passing of the Carnvale brothers, Wally and Pat, had much to do with this pair getting their quotas of field goals.

For Croydon Vets, Bob Jones garnered 14 points and had opportunities of scoring many others but chose to pass to team-mates.

It was the 10th straight loss for the Vets.

The local loop will swing into action again on Saturday night when two games will be played on the high school floor with Rohm and Haas meeting the Knights of Columbus and the Hibernalians playing the Profy team.

Grasses, Grains Are Benefiting by Snow

the county, because of the frequent rains and the snow, is quite good, and it is not likely farmers will experience a water shortage this winter.

A sudden thaw, accompanied by a heavy rain, said Mr. Greenawalt, will result in a heavy run off of water, but he does not believe the erosion of soil would be very extensive because the ground has been frozen so hard.

Because of the heavy coating of snow and because the ground is quite hard, farmers are doing nothing in their fields.

Much of their time now is devoted to thawing out water pipes, removing snow from their driveways, keeping the milk from freezing and getting farm machinery ready for spring and summer use. If conditions are favorable farmers will begin the seeding of clover the latter part of March and the fore part of April.

KEYES' SHOOTING WINS FOR ST. ANN'S IN CLOSING MINUTES

Two field goals and a foul by "Howie" Keyes in the closing minutes of the game gave St. Ann's A. A. a well-earned victory over the Falls Alumni quintet last night on the Rohm & Haas floor in a Bristol Basketball League tilt. Final score of the game was 43-40.

The triumph brought a halt to the four-game losing streak of St. Ann's and put them in sixth place in the league standing.

For a time it appeared as if the Saints would toss away its nine-point lead amassed in the third period. Three double-deckers in fast order by "Charlie" Duerr had put the Orange and Black but two points away from the St. Ann's total, 40-38. But Keyes, who had previously scored a field goal, put in a lay-up and followed with a foul conversion. Parr shot in a fielder for Falls Alumni just before the final gun went off.

Keyes led the St. Ann's team in the victory with 7 field goals and a pair of fouls for fourteen points. Rohm & Haas floor in a Bristol Basketball League tilt. Final score of the game was 43-40.

The tilt was close until the final period. At the end of the first ten minutes, St. Ann's had a one-point lead, 7-6, and still had the same advantage at the end of the second quarter, 19-18. Keyes scored 10 of the St. Ann's points in the first half.

TAKES FRENCH LEAVE

PARIS (INS)—Yvon Petra, 1946 holder of the men's Wimbledon tennis title and star French Davis Cup player, deserted the amateur ranks

recently to accept two professional offers in Belgium. The tall, lanky Frenchman, who ranks as one of France's all-time tennis champions, has signed a contract with a Belgian sporting goods firm to endorse what will be called the "Petra racquet." He has also agreed to aid in training the Belgian Davis Cup team.

Chicago Sun Quits As Separate Paper

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—The morning Chicago Sun and afternoon Chicago Times, owned by Marshall Field, announced today that they would merge into a 24-hour newspaper to be known as the Chicago Daily Sun and Times. The merger will be effective Monday.

Field purchased the Times, a tabloid, last summer. Last Oct. 1 he moved the Sun, a standard-sized paper, to the Times plant and changed it to a tabloid size paper. Their Sunday editions were combined last September.

The round the clock Sun and Times also will permit the more efficient use of production and distribution facilities necessary in a period of higher costs for news-

print, increasing wages and other economic pressures.

The announcement came on the sixty-sixth day of the strike of 1,500 printers, members of Local 16 of the Chicago Typographical Union, affiliate of the International Typographical Union, AFL, against the city's six daily newspapers. As a result of the walk-out, each of the six dailies adopted a time-consuming method of photoengraving type-written stories and advertisements, thus by-passing the composing rooms.

When this organization was first started, there were registered 43 troops, and now there are approximately 57, consisting of over 1000 Girl Scouts in Bucks County.

The Brownies, intermediates and seniors of various troops throughout the county have put on 15 radio programs. The girls have done this solely for the enjoyment they have each received.

START EACH DAY WITH A BOUNTIFUL, NOURISHING MEAL

By Miss Flora-May Sagal
(Home Economics Representative)
A good breakfast is especially important for these snappy cold winter mornings. If members of your family seem uninterested in food at breakfast time, perhaps you need to put forth a little more effort to plan for variety in that first meal of the day.

Colorful, well-seasoned foods and attractive service will help stimulate breakfast appetites. Fruit or fruit juice is the perfect starter for this important meal of the day. There is no need for lack of variety in this course with fresh, canned, dried, and frozen fruits from which to choose.

Poached grapefruit might please the family some frosty morning. Prepare the halves of grapefruit in the usual way, sprinkle each half with one tablespoon of brown sugar, dot with butter, and pop under the broiler for a few minutes until well heated and faintly browned on top.

Some type of protein food, such as egg, bacon, or ham, a whole grain cereal and milk, is needed to complete the meal. For an economical breakfast, the protein food may be extended by using eggs in muffins or French toast. Oatmeal (rolled oats) goes combine eggs and cereal and are delicious served piping hot with butter and jam or marmalade. Here's the recipe that will make eight large or 12 small servings:

- 1 egg
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup sifted enriched flour
2/3 cup rolled oats (quick or regular, uncooked)
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted shortening.

Beat the egg and add the dry ingredients alternately with the milk. Put in the shortening and mix only until the ingredients will hold together. Drop by tablespoonfuls on a greased baking sheet or put into muffin tins. Bake in a 425 degree F. oven 20 minutes.

WHY YOU MUST SAVE FUEL OIL NOW

Here's the problem
that
must be faced

This is what we're doing to
meet the situation

Here's how you
can help
stretch the supply

You... your neighbors... your schools, your hospitals... are faced with a serious situation—the possibility of not having enough fuel oil to last the winter. Never before has it been more important that you save fuel oil and kerosene.

This is the case despite the fact that right now, more oil products are being produced and delivered than ever before in the nation's history. With more oil burners, more cars, more diesel trains, planes, farm machinery, the demand for oil exceeds even peak war years. Oil is asked to do—and does—more all the time!

EVERY BRANCH of the oil industry is working at breakneck speed to meet the ever-growing demand. Production of oil products is now at an all-time high... oil reserves at a record high level.

The oil industry is spending over 4 billion dollars to find new sources of supply... to expand refinery and distribution facilities... to provide extra, faster methods of transportation. But in this industry, as in many others, there are difficulties in obtaining necessary materials to expand facilities—refineries, means of transportation, storage. To correct the situation will take time.

In the meantime, there's one way you can help: save all the fuel oil you can... right now! It's the best way you can insure yourself having enough fuel oil the rest of this winter.

Save MONEY... save FUEL OIL... help stretch the supply.

1. Keep temperature at moderate level—not more than 68 degrees. Turn thermostat to 60 or below at night.
2. Keep doors, windows closed, shades drawn. Close off unused rooms.
3. Install storm windows and insulation to keep heat in... cold out.
4. Have your heating system checked to be sure you're getting the most efficient use of your fuel oil.

If everyone cooperates, the current "pinch" need not last too long. As soon as it is humanly possible, there'll be enough oil for your ever-mounting needs. The greater your cooperation, the sooner that day will be.

If everyone saves... there will be enough for all

16 POINTS IN 3RD SESSION SCORED BY 5TH WARD

Sixteen points in the third session enabled the Fifth Ward Sporting Club to take undisputed possession of second place in the Bristol Basketball League last night as the Warders topped the Croydon Vets, 42-34, on the Maple Beach clubhouse court.

The Vets played good ball throughout the entire contest with the exception of the third quarter when their defense throttled and Fifth Ward jumped into a 15-point lead.

Croydon came back strong in the last period and registered 13 points while holding Fifth Ward to 8.

Joe Plebani led the Fifth Ward team to its seven circuit triumph by slitting the cords for 8 twin-counters and a foul with "Vince" DiTanna getting six field goals. The passing of the Carnvale brothers, Wally and Pat, had much to do with this pair getting their quotas of field goals.

For Croydon Vets, Bob Jones garnered 14 points and had opportunities of scoring many others but chose to pass to team-mates.

It was the 10th straight loss for the Vets.

The local loop will swing into action again on Saturday night when two games will be played on the high school floor with Rohm and Haas meeting the Knights of Columbus and the Hibernians playing the Profy team.

Grasses, Grains Are Benefiting by Snow

Continued from Page One the county, because of the frequent rains and the snow, is quite good, and it is not likely farmers will experience a water shortage this winter.

A sudden thaw, accompanied by a heavy rain, said Mr. Greenawalt, will result in a heavy run off of water, but he does not believe the erosion of soil would be very extensive because the ground has been frozen so hard.

Because of the heavy coating of snow and because the ground is quite hard, farmers are doing nothing in their fields.

Much of their time now is devoted to thawing out water pipes, removing snow from their driveways, keeping the milk from freezing and getting farm machinery ready for spring and summer use. If conditions are favorable farmers will begin the seeding of clover the latter part of March and the fore part of April.

Two field goals and a foul by "Howie" Keyes in the closing minutes of the game gave St. Ann's A. A. a well-earned victory over the Falls Alumni quintet last night on the Rohm & Haas floor in a Bristol Basketball League tilt. Final score of the game was 43-40.

The triumph brought a halt to the four-game losing streak of St. Ann's and put them in sixth place in the league standing.

For a time it appeared as if the Saints would toss away its nine-point lead amassed in the third period. Three double-deckers in fast order by "Charlie" Duerr had put the Orange and Black but two points away from the St. Ann's total, 40-38. But Keyes, who had previously scored a field goal, put in a lay-up and followed with a foul conversion. Parr shot in a fielder for Falls Alumni just before the final gun went off.

Keyes led the St. Ann's team in the victory with 7 field goals and a pair of fouls for fourteen points, four more than his running mate, "Toby" Oriola. For Falls Alumni, Duerr continued his scoring spree by getting fourteen points.

The tilt was close until the final period. At the end of the first ten minutes, St. Ann's had a one-point lead, 7-6, and still had the same advantage at the end of the second quarter, 19-18. Keyes scored 10 of the St. Ann's points in the first half.

TAKES FRENCH LEAVE

recently to accept two professional offers in Belgium. The tall, lanky Frenchman, who ranks as one of France's all-time tennis champions, has signed a contract with a Belgian sporting goods firm to endorse

what will be called the "Petra racquet." He has also agreed to aid in training the Belgian Davis Cup team.

PENNA. OBSERVES 100 YEARS OF PROGRESS

Prospects in 1848 Were Not Very Bright; But Years Bring Change

POPULATION 10,281,000

(Prepared for The Courier by the State Planning Board, Department of Commerce.)

A Hundred Years of Progress
The first month of each year is frequently devoted to the publication of prophecies, which however attractive usually prove little but man's inability to foresee those vital events which influence his destiny.

One hundred years ago in January, 1848, American prospects seemed none too bright. We had defeated Mexico in a brief war of invasion, but the expansion of the population of the United States into the wild Indian lands beyond the Mississippi appeared to be a process which would require many generations. There, on the 24th of January, one hundred years ago, a wandering prospector dug up a haul of nuggets near a stream bank in Northern California and that single unpredictable event changed the whole current of American history and affected the destiny of nations in the remotest parts of the World. So it is sometimes more profitable to look back over the facts of our progress than to indulge too much in the habit of dreaming about the future.

One hundred years ago Pennsylvania's population had just attained a total of 2,000,000, a fourfold increase since 1790. Today, the United States Census estimates our population at 10,281,000, confirming the estimate of the Pennsylvania State Planning Board issued last year. Our population has thus increased more than fivefold in the past one hundred years.

The annual production of our State in 1841 was valued at $160,500,000. This dollar value has increased at least ninetyfold as measured by our output of farm and factory in any of the past five years. According to the report of the Auditor General in 1841 the assessed value of real estate and personal property in the Commonwealth was $294,509,186. The assessed value in 1942 was $7,548,000,000, twenty-five times as great as a century before. Our 700 miles of railroad lines of 1841 have become approximately 12,000. The pre-eminence we held in iron production in 1841, when our output was one-third of the National total, has been maintained during every one of the past 105 years which have seen the coming of the great age of iron and steel. Despite the tremendous changes which have occurred in the National economy, Pennsylvania's dominance in the vital lines of production, already established in 1840, seems today as secure as at any time in the history of our Commonwealth.

It is on a record of continuous growth such as this, a growth based on the industry of our people, the resources of our soil and the advantages of our location, that Pennsylvania can count more surely than on any current prediction. As John F. Watson wrote in 1842 in his "Annals of Philadelphia": "Who is not proud of such a State? She has all the resources of a great Nation within herself for happiness in peace, for power in war. There are no people in the World who have so many advantages with so few burdens." Those words are as true today as they were a century ago.

CAMDEN HIGH TO PLAY WARRIORS ON LOCAL FLOOR

Athletic relations between Bristol High and Camden Catholic High will be inaugurated tonight as the basketball teams of the two schools vie for honors on the local court. A preliminary game between the junior varsity teams of the schools will start at 7:30 o'clock. Tonight will mark the first time that a Bristol team has played a team from Camden and according to the statistics, the teams are about as evenly matched as could be. Camden Catholic played Brown Prep and lost by 11 points, making a little better showing than the Warriors. However, since then, Camden Catholic has beaten both Woodrow Wilson High School and Reading Central Catholic. The Jersey team has a high scorer in the person of Center Edward Feigenbut and has two long distance shooting artist in Frank Schiechitano and Joe Elliott. The other two starting players are Murray and Roberts.

Coach "Jerry" Bloom's minions are back on the winning side of the ledger, having trimmed Buckingham Tuesday night for their 11th win of the season. They have lost two, being beaten by Trenton Catholic and Brown Prep.

The Warriors looked exceptionally well in their passing against Buckingham although at times their shooting appeared erratic. Coach Bloom has been shifting players quite a bit lately in order to give more experience to the players that usually fill in when the starting five is resting.

Coach Harry McClester's JayVees will be aiming for their eighth straight win. This club is the surprise of the season and has beaten some of the faster schools.

TEAMS TO BATTLE FOR LEAGUE LEAD

The battle for first place in the Bristol Junior League will take place tonight when the St. Ann's and St. Mark's Parochial School teams meet on the Mutual Aid floor, starting at seven o'clock. St. Ann's has a record of six and one while St. Mark's has also lost one game but has won only five.

In the opening game of the Bristol Youth League, the Celtics meet the Keystone Oilers. A loss by the Celtics will shove them deeper in the cellar while Keystone needs the victory to maintain their grip on second place which is being threatened by Penn A. C.

The second encounter of the Youth League lines up the Second Ward Boys' Club against the Hibernians. The Hibs must win tonight or their hopes for a playoff spot will diminish.

DUCK HAS GOOD TASTE

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (INS) — "Wanna buy a ring, duck?" was the (q)uacky question on Main street when a canvasback recently wandered into a jewelry store. It was believed the bird, who acted dazed by the glitter around the place, may have hit a wire in flying too low over the city.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By Jack Ward
(I. N. S. Penna. Farm Editor)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 29 — (INS) — Pennsylvania farmers were cautioned to spend conservatively and manage efficiently during 1948.

Agricultural extension specialists of Pennsylvania State College urged economical and efficient farm management and minimum spending "in view of prevailing high cost and uncertainties inherent in the future."

Kenneth Hood, Chief of Agricultural Economics, and Earl L. Moffitt, farm management specialist, predicted that demands for farm products will maintain high production, but warned that margins between prices and costs will narrow.

They urged farmers in general to be conservative in use of funds, to clear debts, and re-invest a part of their income in farm business. In addition, they were cautioned to maintain a strong cash position and to defer major construction projects for another year.

Production and marketing of higher quality goods will yield proportionate returns in view of widening quality margins, they added.

Livestock growers will be wise to maintain normal numbers, but cull low producers, the specialists said. At the same time, livestock owners must increase feed production, with particular emphasis on pasture improvement, they declared.

The yearly meeting of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council will return to pre-war form at Harrisburg September 14-16 when the 11th annual convention is held in the State Farm Show building.

More than 5000 poultry producers from 13 northeastern states will attend the exposition. It was announced. Approximately 100 commercial exhibits and displays will be featured in the main farm show building.

Two new hybrid field corns, the first developed especially to meet Pennsylvania growing conditions, will be available in limited quantities for 1948 planting. It has been announced by the Agricultural Experiment Station.

L. L. Huber, of Pennsylvania State College, reported the new hybrids both are resistant to stalk rot and insects, particularly corn borers and corn leaf aphids.

Seed is available in half-bushel quantities to extend trials of the hybrids, he said, and may be obtained through the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association.

"We have tried these hybrids in field tests for the past two years and feel that at last we have corn that's adapted to Pennsylvania conditions," he explained. "However, the farmers of the state are the final judges."

START EACH DAY
WITH A BOUNTIFUL,
NOURISHING MEAL

By Miss Flora-May Sagui

(Home Economics Representative)
A good breakfast is especially important for these snappy cold winter mornings. If members of your family seem uninterested in food at breakfast time, perhaps you need to put forth a little more effort to plan for variety in that first meal of the day.

Colorful, well-seasoned foods and attractive service will help stimulate breakfast appetites. Fruit or fruit juice is the perfect starter for this important meal of the day. There is no need for lack of variety in this course with fresh, canned, dried, and frozen fruits from which to choose.

Proiled grapefruit might please the family some frosty morning. Prepare the halves of grapefruit in the usual way, sprinkle each half with one tablespoon of brown sugar, dot with butter, and pop under the broiler for a few minutes until well heated and faintly browned on top.

Some type of protein food, such as egg, bacon, or ham, a whole grain cereal and milk, is needed to complete the meal. For an economical breakfast, the protein food may be extended by using eggs in muffins or French toast. Oatmeal (rolled oats) gems combine eggs and cereal and are delicious served piping hot with butter and jam or marmalade. Here's the recipe that will make eight large or 12 small gems:

- 1 egg
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup sifted enriched flour
2/3 cup rolled oats (quick or regular, uncooked)
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted shortening.

Beat the egg and add the dry ingredients alternately with the milk. Put in the shortening and mix only until the ingredients will hold together. Drop by tablespoonfuls on a greased baking sheet or put into muffin tins. Bake in a 425 degree F. oven 20 minutes.

WHY YOU MUST SAVE FUEL OIL NOW

that
must be faced

This is what we're
doing to
meet the situation

Here's how you
can help
stretch the supply

YOU... your neighbors... your schools, your hospitals... are faced with a serious situation—the possibility of not having enough fuel oil to last the winter. Never before has it been more important that you save fuel oil and kerosene.

This is the case despite the fact that right now, more oil products are being produced and delivered than ever before in the nation's history. With more oil burners, more cars, more diesel trains, planes, farm machinery, the demand for oil exceeds even peak war years. Oil is asked to do—and does—more all the time!

EVERY BRANCH of the oil industry is working at breakneck speed to meet the ever-growing demand. Production of oil products is now at an all-time high... oil reserves at a record high level.

The oil industry is spending over 4 billion dollars to find new sources of supply... to expand refinery and distribution facilities... to provide extra, faster methods of transportation. But in this industry, as in many others, there are difficulties in obtaining necessary materials to expand facilities—refineries, means of transportation, storage. To correct the situation will take time.

In the meantime, there's one way you can help: save all the fuel oil you can... right now! It's the best way you can insure yourself having enough fuel oil the rest of this winter.

Save MONEY... save FUEL OIL... help stretch the supply.

1. Keep temperature at moderate level—not more than 68 degrees. Turn thermostat to 60 or below at night.
2. Keep doors, windows closed, shades drawn. Close off unused rooms.
3. Install storm windows and insulation to keep heat in... cold out.
4. Have your heating system checked to be sure you're getting the most efficient use of your fuel oil.

If everyone cooperates, the current "pinch" need not last too long. As soon as it is humanly possible, there'll be enough oil for your ever-mounting needs. The greater your cooperation, the sooner that day will be.

If everyone saves... there will be enough for all

PENNA. OBSERVES 100 YEARS OF PROGRESS

Prospects in 1848 Were Not Very Bright; But Years Bring Change

A Hundred Years of Progress

The first month of each year is frequently devoted to the publication of prophecies, which however attractive usually prove little but man's inability to foresee those vital events which influence his destiny.

One hundred years ago in January, 1848, American prospects seemed none too bright. We had defeated Mexico in a brief war of invasion, but the expansion of the population of the United States into the wild Indian lands beyond the Mississippi appeared to be a process which would require many generations. There, on the 24th of January, one hundred years ago, a wandering prospector dug up a handful of nuggets near a stream bank in Northern California and that single unpredictable event changed the whole current of American history and affected the destiny of nations in the remotest parts of the World. So it is sometimes more profitable to look back over the facts of our progress than to indulge too much in the habit of dreaming about the future.

One hundred years ago Pennsylvania's population had just attained a total of 2,000,000, a fourfold increase since 1790. Today, the United States Census estimates our population at 10,281,000, confirming the estimate of the Pennsylvania State Planning Board issued last year. Our population has thus increased more than fivefold in the past one hundred years.

The annual production of our State in 1841 was valued at $160,500,000. This dollar value has increased at least ninetyfold as measured by our output of farm and factory in any of the past five years. According to the report of the Auditor General in 1841 the assessed value of real estate and personal property in the Commonwealth was $294,509,186. The assessed value

tion in 1942 was $7,548,000,000, twenty-five times as great as a century before. Our 700 miles of railroad lines of 1841 have become approximately 12,000. The pre-eminence we held in iron production in 1841, when our output was one-third of the National total, has been maintained during every one of the past 105 years which have seen the coming of the great age of iron and steel. Despite the tremendous changes which have occurred in the National economy, Pennsylvania's dominance in the vital lines of production, already established in 1840, seems today as secure as at any time in the history of our Commonwealth.

It is on a record of continuous growth such as this, a growth based on the industry of our people, the resources of our soil and the advantages of our location, that Pennsylvania can count more surely than on any current prediction. As John F. Watson wrote in 1842 in his "Annals of Philadelphia": "Who is not proud of such a State! She has all the resources of a great Nation within herself for happiness in peace, for power in war. There are no people in the World who have so many advantages with so few burdens." Those words are as true today as they were a century ago.

CAMDEN HIGH TO PLAY WARRIORS ON LOCAL FLOOR

Athletic relations between Bristol High and Camden Catholic High will be inaugurated tonight as the basketball teams of the two schools vie for honors on the local court. A preliminary game between the junior varsity teams of the schools will start at 7.30 o'clock.

Tonight will mark the first time that a Bristol team has played a team from Camden and according to the statistics, the teams are about as evenly matched as could be.

Camden Catholic played Brown Prep and lost by 11 points, making a little better showing than the Warriors. However, since then, Camden Catholic has beaten both Woodrow Wilson High School and Reading Central Catholic.

The Jersey team has a high scorer in the person of Center Edward Feigenbut and has two long distance shooting artist in Frank Schlichtman and Joe Elliott. The other two starting players are Murray and Roberts.

Coach "Jerry" Bloom's minions are back on the winning side of the ledger, having trimmed Buckingham Tuesday night for their 11th win of the season. They have lost two, being beaten by Trenton Catholic and Brown Prep.

The Warriors looked exceptionally well in their passing against Buckingham although at times their shooting appeared erratic. Coach Bloom has been shifting players quite a bit lately in order to give more experience to the players that usually fill in when the starting five is resting.

Coach Harry McClist's JayVees will be aiming for their eighth straight win. This club is the surprise of the season and has beaten some of the faster schools.

TEAMS TO BATTLE FOR LEAGUE LEAD

The battle for first place in the Bristol Junior League will take place tonight when the St. Ann's and St. Mark's Parochial School sides meet on the Mutual Aid floor, starting at seven o'clock. St. Ann's has a record of six and one while St. Mark's has also lost one game but has won only five.

In the opening game of the Bristol Youth League, the Celtics meet the Keystone Oilers. A loss by the Celtics will shove them deeper in the cellar while Keystone needs the victory to maintain their grip on second place which is being threatened by Penn A. C.

The second encounter of the Youth League lines up the Second Ward Boys' Club against the Hibernians. The Hibs must win tonight or their hopes for a playoff spot will diminish.

DUCK HAS GOOD TASTE

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (INS) — "Wanna buy a ring, duck?" was the (q)uacky question on Main street when a canvasback recently wandered into a jewelry store. It was believed the bird, who acted dazed by the glitter around the place, may have hit a wire in flying too low over the city.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO PA. FARMERS

By Jack Ward
(I. N. S. Penna. Farm Editor)
HARRISBURG, Jan. 29 — (INS) — Pennsylvania farmers were cautioned to spend conservatively and manage efficiently during 1948.

Agricultural extension specialists of Pennsylvania State College urged economical and efficient farm management and minimum spending "in view of prevailing high cost and uncertainties inherent in the future."

Kenneth Hood, Chief of Agricultural Economics, and Earl L. Moffitt, farm management specialist, predicted that demands for farm products will maintain high production, but warned that margins between prices and costs will narrow.

They urged farmers in general to be conservative in use of funds, to clear debts, and re-invest a part of their income in farm business. In addition, they were cautioned to maintain a strong cash position and to defer major construction projects for another year.

Production and marketing of higher quality goods will yield proportionate returns in view of widening quality margins, they added.

Livestock growers will be wise to maintain normal numbers, but cull low producers, the specialists said. At the same time, livestock owners must increase feed production, with particular emphasis on pasture improvement, they declared.

The yearly meeting of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council will return to pre-war form at Harrisburg September 14-16 when the 11th annual convention is held in the State Farm Show building.

More than 5000 poultry producers from 13 northeastern states will attend the exposition, it was announced. Approximately 100 commercial exhibits and displays will be featured in the main farm show building.

Two new hybrid field corns, the first developed especially to meet Pennsylvania growing conditions, will be available in limited quantities for 1948 planting, it has been announced by the Agricultural Experiment Station.

L. L. Huber, of Pennsylvania State College, reported the new hybrids both are resistant to stalk-rot and insects, particularly corn borer and corn leaf aphids.

Seed is available in half-bushel quantities to extend trials of the hybrids, he said, and may be obtained through the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association.

"We have tried these hybrids in field tests for the past two years and feel that at last we have corn that's adapted to Pennsylvania conditions," he explained. "However, the farmers of the state are the final judges."
